PARK PLAZA HOTELS & RESORTS PRESENTS NEW LONDON HOTEL: PARK PLAZA WESTMINSTER BRIDGE LONDON

Park Plaza Hotels & Resorts is changing the face of the London hotel scene with its new £350 million hotel, Park Plaza Westminster Bridge London.

Situated at the foot of Westminster Bridge in the heart of the buzzing South Bank, Park Plaza Westminster Bridge London is ideally located only moments from many of London's top attractions including Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament and the London Eye.

Eli Papouchado, Chairman of Park Plaza Hotels, said: "We have unveiled a spectacular new hotel that offers all the hallmarks of the Park Plaza Hotels & Resorts brand – contemporary design, modern facilities and warm, engaging service – with an unrivalled location, stunning views and a host of unique touches designed to create an exceptional guest experience."

Accommodation:

Both business and leisure guests will appreciate the contemporary guest rooms and choice of 54 suites and penthouses. Spacious Superior Rooms measure an average of 27 square metres while Studio Rooms, which provide a separate sitting room ideal for families, average approximately 36 square metres. Guest room features include 37-inch LCD flat-screen televisions, bedside lighting controls with dimmers, a workstation with international electrical outlets and a mini-bar with separate refrigerator. Sleek bathrooms provide separate bathtubs and glass-enclosed showers, vessel sinks, under-counter night lights and makeup mirrors.

Dining:

The hotel's dining offerings include Brasserie Joël, which has been crafted under the direction of the hotel's renowned chef Joel Antunes. Best known in the UK for his work in 1990s creating London's Michelin-starred Les Saveurs, Antunes has returned to London following a decade abroad. Also on offer is Ichi Sushi & Sashimi Bar and for cocktails and live entertainment, the stylish Primo Bar. Guests also are able to enjoy the ultimate Italian coffee bar experience, espressamente illy.

Amenities:

A host of guest amenities include two executive lounges, a 24-hour business centre and a private suite check-in area. A luxurious spa with eight treatment rooms and fitness facilities including a 15-metre swimming pool is scheduled to open in Summer 2010.

Location:

Park Plaza Westminster Bridge London is located at the foot of Westminster Bridge, only steps from the city's most iconic attractions. Four minutes away, along the South Bank of the River Thames, guests will find unique attractions and a thriving arts community. The most visited attraction in London, the London Eye, is at the heart of the action. Also minutes away are the London Sea Life Aquarium, South Bank Centre and the National Theatre. A stroll across Westminster Bridge is Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament. Walk a few minutes further and find Westminster Abbey, Buckingham Palace and Covent Garden. Nearby transportation links include both London Overground and Underground lines at Waterloo and Westminster stations.

Meetings & Events:

The flexible design and sheer size of the hotel's modern meeting space has attracted meeting planners seeking a new option for conferences. The pillar-free Westminster Ballroom accommodates as many as 1,400 theatre-style and more than 1,000 for dinner. An additional 31 meeting rooms provide an array of options ranging from small board meetings to receptions for 1,200 guests.

Park Plaza Westminster Bridge is the third Park Plaza hotel located on London's South Bank. The adjacent Park Plaza County Hall opened in 2008 and nearby Park Plaza Riverbank opened in 2005. Also in London are the Park Plaza Victoria and the Park Plaza Sherlock Holmes hotel on Baker Street.
