LONDON CALLING – THE MAY FAIR & 12 RADISSON EDWARDIAN HOTELS EXTEND SPECIAL “10 FOR 9” MEETINGS OFFER THROUGH APRIL 2010

Great Value Found in London with British Pound at Lowest in Years

LONDON (May 2009) – With the British Pound offering nearly 20 percent savings compared to last year at this time, London has become a hot destination for meetings. The May Fair and 12 Radisson Edwardian Hotels, in London and Manchester, add to the savings with a special “10 for 9” promotion (<http://www.radissonedwardian.com/10for9/>). Companies that book their meeting, event or incentive trip by December 31, 2009 and hold the event before April 19, 2010 will only pay for nine out of ten of their attendees.

“There’s never been a better time for American companies to host a meeting in London. Not only does the pound-dollar exchange rate offer tremendous value, but our hotels’ special promotion offers planners a way to cut costs rather than corners. In addition, London’s scene right now is as vibrant and creative as ever to inspire meeting attendees,” said Linda Plant, director of marketing for The May Fair and Radisson Edwardian Hotels.

The “10 for 9” promotion applies to two packages: the Daily Delegate Package, including unlimited tea and coffee, mineral water, wireless internet access and a three course lunch per attendee; as well as to the 24-Hour Delegate Package, including the amenities of the Daily Delegate Package plus accommodation, breakfast and a three-course dinner per attendee.

Radisson Edwardian offers properties in London’s most popular neighborhoods. The group’s 13 hotels and their respective locations include: the group’s flagship five-star hotel, The May Fair (an independent luxury brand in Mayfair), as well as The Leicester Square & The Hampshire (Leicester Square), The Bloomsbury Street Hotel & The Kenilworth (Bloomsbury), The Berkshire & The Sussex

(Oxford Street), The Mountbatten (Covent Garden), The Grafton (Tottenham Court Road), The Vanderbilt (Kensington), New Providence Wharf (Canary Wharf), Radisson Edwardian Heathrow and the Radisson Edwardian Manchester Free Trade Hall.

With over 130 meeting and events spaces, the Radisson Edwardian group can accommodate groups ranging from a conference for 700 people or a business meeting for two. The group's unique meeting spaces include London's largest privately owned theatre, at The May Fair; a skyline Penthouse overlooking London's top attractions, at The Hampshire; and meeting space overlooking state-of-the-art O2 arena, at The New Providence Wharf. Also available for all events held at a Radisson Edwardian property is a personalized event page on their website. A customized web page is created to inform guests about key event information plus enable them to book their accommodation for the event online.
